AN ADDITION TO ALEXANDRIA'S MANUFACTURES.—The statement that the goods of children's and infants' shoes formerly manufactured by the firm of J. & T. Cousins in Brooklyn will in future be manufactured in Alexandria will be received with satisfaction by the entire community.

Negotiations have been going on for some time between the parties interested and now they have culminated in the purchase of the entire outfit for manufacturing children's and infants' shoes by the proprietors of the Paff shoe factory in this city, and all will in a few days be removed to Alexandria.

The Paffs are now employing one hundred and ten operators, and the interior of the factory presents the picture of a beehive of industry where male and female are busily at work turning out goods.

The firm will need about forty more operatives in order to meet the requirements of the new order of things. The manner in which all this has been brought about is interesting.

The Messrs Paff, with inborn business instincts, commenced at the lowest rung of the ladder by starting in a modest way to manufacture children's shoes.

By studying every detail of their business and applying themselves closely to it, the success which invariably follows industry and close application crowned their efforts and their factory has gradually expanded into its present proportions.

The Messrs. Cousins have for many years enjoyed a national reputation as shoe manufacturers. They have produced ladies', children's and infants' shoes, but of late have been concentrating most of their attention on the first-named grades.

The sharp competition offered by the Alexandria factory in prices of children's and infants' wear has caused them to attempt to induce the Paff factory to go to Brooklyn, in order that they might not be forced to relinquish the manufacture of the smaller goods, and thus keep up their regular lines.

This proposition, however, was not to be entertained by the Messrs. Paff, Alexandrians native and to the manner born as they are, and who naturally take pride in expanding the industries of their own city. So they concluded instead of going to Brooklyn to induce Brooklyn to come here. And they have succeeded, the Messrs. Cousins having consented to sell out one branch of their trade to them.

As in future this grade of work will be produced in Alexandria.

DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTION.—The following are the names of the twenty delegates which have been submitted to Mr. Swanson to vote for that gentleman for Governor at the Norfolk Convention August 14: Messrs. J. M. Hill, Hubert Snowden, George Hayden, E. A. Birrell, A. C. Murchaugh, T. Ballenger, Charles Cavillier, Richard H. Cox, Charles B. Marshall, Charles Bendheim, John Reed, James R. Canon, Louis C. Bailey, C. C. Carlin, Samuel B. Brent, William B. Smoot, John A. Marshall, C. Randy Davis, George Pettit, and J. K. M. Norton. Mr. W. B. Smoot recently submitted the names mentioned above to Mr. Swanson, but he has not yet, it is stated, received a reply, and the delegates will not be considered appointed until Mr. Swanson is heard from.

It is, however, expected that the list will be confirmed by Mr. Swanson, though some changes may be made. The Alexandria county delegation, which consists of four delegates, has already been chosen at a primary held in that county.

Three of the delegates are for Attorney General Montague and one for Mr. Swanson.

A special meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held tonight.

PROFITS OF LIQUOR SELLING.—Is an order to commit Michael Lawler, a saloonkeeper of Brooklyn, Alexandria county, for contempt in not paying Mr. Lawler $40 per month alimony, Justice Bradley, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, yesterday estimated the profits of the liquor seller at 200 per cent. Lawler's counsel pleaded that with only $350 worth of stock Lawler could not pay so large a sum. The Court took the position, however, that such a stock, properly handled, would yield the profit indicated.

AN END OF THE HOT WAY.—The rain and northeast wind of yesterday brought the long-hoped-for dissipation of the hot wave which has caused so much sweating hereabouts for over a month. There was no difficulty in sleeping last night in fact windows were fastened and let in draughts rather too cool for some. This morning cloudy conditions prevailed, while the same refreshing northeast wind continued its sway. Later the sun came out and shone brightly.

SENT TO THE WORK HOUSE.—Charles Williams, a former driver of the garbage cart, was arrested yesterday charged with larceny of several articles from Mr. Thomas Fannon. He was also charged with similar offenses of a petty nature. The Mayor after hearing all the allegations against the accused sent him to the work house for thirty days. Williams has a hair-clip and has heretofore been an inmate at the Poor House.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Officers of the Norfolk steamer, which arrived here this morning reported that when the boat passed Mount Vernon Springs the boat passed that place was burning fiercely and that the flames had spread to adjoining trees, some of which were on fire. The place belongs to Washingtonians. It was at one time a favorite resort for picnic parties, but of late had not been used.

A PICTURE FOR HOGARTH.—Were Hogarth alive and in Alexandria he could gather inspiration for a picture which might prove his chef d'oeuvre by taking in the four quarters of the compass at the intersection of Royal and Cameron streets, especially on a Saturday afternoon. The attitudes of the different individuals are interesting. Some enjoy posterior positions on the pavements with their heads falling toward the rear, while others, not so far "gone," are held in a semi-erect position by the walls of friendly buildings. There is no disposition on the part of well-disposed people to use harsh words towards such as the image of their Maker by bestiality. It is an unfortunate picture and one to be deplored, but it is often thought that some of the many who preach and practice morality could at least make an effort to lead such characters out of the road which is taking them to destruction.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.—The property on King street advertised for sale today at auction by special commissioners Mushbach and Armstrong was withdrawn for want of bidders.

A lot of ground with two buildings thereon situated on the east side of Patrick street between Prince and Duke was sold by Mr. S. H. Lunt, auctioneer, to Mr. J. D. Nemoyle for $550 cash.

Property on Wilkes street advertised for sale was not offered by auctioneer R. F. Knox.

MR. HUME.—It is understood that Mr. Frank Hume is not particularly anxious to be returned to the Legislature, being willing to give way to new blood at the coming fall election provided a suitable candidate should offer himself to the democracy of this city and county. Mr. Hume two years ago received the nomination in the democratic primary election by an overwhelming majority, and had a virtual walk-over at the general election.
